The President's Son Arrested in New York,

For An Alleged Libel Published Out in Montana.

Young Harrison Gives Bail and Takes It Coolly.

Other Eastern Dispatches-A Chinese Scandal-Strike of Carmen at Minneapolis-The Railway Wrangle, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, April 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Russell Harrison was arrested this afternoon in the office of the Judge, in the Potter building, on a charge of having pub-afternoon in the office of the Judge, in the Potter building, on a charge of having published in the Montana Live Stock Journal an article taken from a Buffalo paper accusing Gov. John Schuyler Crosby of Montana of having stolen jawelry from a Washington last night for the purpose of having papers in the suit served on him.

The warrant was issued by Judge Beach of the Supreme Court, who fixed the bail at 8000. Stephen B. Ekins, Vice-President Rice of the Park Bank and W. J. Arkell of the Judge became Harrison's bondsmen.

Harrison was not in charge of the paper at the time the article was published, and knew nothing about it. When his attention was drawn to the fact that the Buffalo paper had not told the truth, Harrison offered to publish a suitable retraction. This, however, Crosby would not accept, but demanded that Harrison should write him a personal letter of apology and also print the same. Harrison declined to do to.

Russell Harrison, when asked if he had anything to say, repiled: "Nothing at the present time. The facts and evidence will be given to the public in the court proceedings. I will be able to show conclusively that I had nothing to do with the instigation of the story published, and did not learn of it until April 22, 1887, six weeks after its publication in the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser."

William A. Sweetzer, Harrison's attorney, said: "The considerable delay in bringing the action and then the instituting of the suit in a locality where the defamatory matter would never have been known had it not been brought to the public notice by Crosby himself, are matters which will be fully explained in the trial. Mr. Hrrrison disclaims all liability or responsibility in the matter, his only connection with it being the paper that made the publication. It has been charged by Crosby that Harrison seit, are matters which will be fully explained in the trial. Mr. Hirrison disclaims all liability or responsibility in the matter, his only connection with it being that of president of the company owning the paper that made the publication. It has been charged by Crosby that Harrison caused the libel in question to be published out of personal hatred or vindictiveness toward him. In point of fact, Crosby has not been unfavorably mentioned, with this exception, it the paper since the first day of its publication.

In his complish Crosby introduces the article printed, which is of rather a scathing nature. It was originally written for the Buffalo paper by its Washington correspondent, who was afterward discharged for having written it. The matter camplained of bears reference to alleged questionable acts of Crosby while Governor of Montana, and concludes by alleging the theft of diamonds from a lady in Washinston. The complaint closes with a demand of sito,0000 from Mr. Harrison, with complaint, Crosby seeks to show cause for hard of him on the part of Harrison, and states that after he had resigned his position as Governor and was acting as First Assistant Postmaster General, defeadant Harrison removed Brady Wilkins, formerly Crosby's private secretary, from his position in the assay office at Helena without making charges against him. Through the influence of Crosby, Wilkins was reinstated and he alleges that this created an animosity on the part of defendant toward him.

Appended to the complaint is a letter from one Leslie Fullgrove, formerly editor of the Montana Letter, disclaiming personal responsibility for the appearance of the objectionable matter, and asserting that Harrison and Lawyer McCutheon of Helena caused its publication.

A CHINESE SCANDALA An Eloping Wife and Some Stolen

An Eloping Wife and Some Stolen Money.

Denver (Colo.), April 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Regarding Chicago dispatches of Wednesday morning stating that Yee Ling, a wealthy Chimese merchant of Denver, has been arrested there for abducting the wife of and stealing $1400 from Wong Toy of Denver, Chief Detective Linton states that the report is untrue. Yee Ling, who did run away with Toy's wife and money several months ago, was arrested six weeks afterward in Tombstone, Ariz., in company with the woman and returned to this city, where he is now in jail under indictment for grand larceny.

Toy secured a divorce from his wife about a month ago and she immediately married Ling. Both parties have been fully identified by Toy, for whom Ling previously to the elopement acted as cierk, as well as by other prominent Chinese in this city. Consequently the Yee Ling arrested in Chieggo cannot be the man wanted here.

Ling is not a wealthy man and the owner of a six-story building in Denver, as reported, but on the other hand is very poor.

I do not anticipate that the trouble will have such a disturbing effect on transcontinental business as some of the Chicago people seem to think. It is confined to the Northern Pacific's territory, and will not affect California business at all. As I stated officially, there has been a violation of the arreement, but I am strongly inclined to believe the two companies will speedily adjust their differences, and there will be no necessity for calling a meeting of the association."

The Time of Their Arrival at San

The Time of Their Arrival at San Francisco Unknown.
CHICAGO, April 11.—[By the Associated Press.] B. W. Wells of this city whose son, a naval cadet, was on board one of the wrecked menof war in the harbor at Apia, and who was among the saved, has received a communication from the Navy Department under date of the 9th inst., in which he is informed that up to date the department has received no news from Admiral Kimberly since his dispatch announcing the disaster at Apia. Upon receipt of this cablegram the department authorized the Admiral to use his discretion as to the wrecked ships and crewn attached to them.

It was thought that a vessel could be chartered at Auckland for their transportation to San Francisco, but since Lieut. Wuson has gone to Sydney it is possible that a suitable vessel could not be obt ined at Auckland. Therefore, it is impossible to tail when they may be expected to arrive at San Francisco.

The naval cadets of the class of 1886 who were upon the wrecked ships had been ordered to report for final examination at the Naval Academy between May ist and 10th.
Should they reach the United States in time to visit their homes before the expiration of the period allowed for reporting they will be at liberty to do so.

Minneapolts (Alinn.), April 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Last night President Lourie of the Minneapolis and St. Paul Car Company issued an order reducing the wages of all employés. with which to build new cable lines, etc.
Notice of the reduction was received by the men with great dissatisfaction.

The motor line crews struck at noon and were followed in rapid succession by others.
At 3 o'clock employés on every street line in the city were out. Not a car has moved on the streets since 4 o'clock this afternoon.
Quiet prevails in the vicinity of the car barns.

The strikers met tonight and united in agreeing to submit their differences with the company to an arbitration committee.
They also appointed a committee to meet representatives of the company should the proposition be accepted. President Lourie said tonight relative to the proposition of the striking employés to arbitrate that he had nothing to arbitrate. The company is determined to reduce salaries, and if the men will not ascept the reduction they may quit work. The prospects are good for a long, hard fight.

OKLAHOMA BOOMERS.

HOW THEY MAY GET TO THE PROMISED LAND.

The Interior Department Disposed to Make Their Way Smooth-All to Have a Chance in the New Territory.

By Telegraph to The Times

WASHINGTON, April 11.—[By the Assoclated Press.] In answer to an inquiry from the Secretary of War, on behalf of a large number of persons contemplating set tlement in Oklahoma, asking if permission tiement in Oklahoma, asking if permission is to be given these intended settlers to cross the Cherokee outlet to the northern line of Oklahoma about the 22d day of April, the date upon which the President's proclamation opening the Territory goes into effect, the Secretary of the Interior has applied in part as follows:

replied in part as follows:

"I think they may be allowed to cross without extraordinary delay, and I therefore recommend you to instruct your commanding officers to place no obstruction in the way of persons who desire to journey in good faith, in a quiet, peaceful and orderly manner, upon and along the public highways, post or military roads, or established and customary cattle trails, through the Cherokee outlet in going forward to the tract of land to be opened for settlement. Care should be taken to have the Indians understand that by this passage there is no disposition to appropriate their lands, and that it will be continued no longer than is absolutely necessary after the first migration to the Okiahoma country is over. The military forces should then scout the Cherokee outlet and require all persons unlawfully there to move on, either back to Kansas or over into the Okiahoma lands."

The Secretary, in part of his letter, says he deems the esttlers are entitled to as much consideration as has been given to the cattle mea and others heretofore, who have been permitted the travel through this outlet. It is urged upon the Secretary, among other reasons for granting this permit, that settlers coming through the Okiahoma tract without obstruction, thus putting those in Kansas, who must pass through the Cherokee outlet, at a disadvantage. No movement will be allowed under this permit until full authority and instructions shall have been received by the military having charge of the matter. eplied in part as follows:
"I think they may be allowed to cross kee outlet, at a disadvantage. No movement will be allowed under this permit untifull authority and instructions shall have been received by the military having charge of the matter.

The recommendations of Secretary Noble were laid before the President by Secretary Proctor, and after consideration an order bearing upon the subject was sent from the War Department this afternoon to the army officers in charge on the border of Indian Territory, presumably to carry into practical effect Secretary Noble's recommendations. Authoritative information on this point is, however, withheld.

It appears that the President's proclamation opening a portion of Oklahoma lands to settlers was more sweeping in its terms than was intended in the matter of excluding persons from entering upon lands before the date named in the proclamation.
Under its terms army officers have been compelled to keep out officials of the Interior Department, whose duty it is to provide for the establishment of the new land offices. To relieve these officials an order was made today by the War Department for their admission into the Territory.

How He "Worked" the Thunderer New York, April 11.—Thomas Walsh New York, April 11.—Thomas Walsh, one of the men on whose promises of startling revelations and incriminating document Sir Richard Weber relied to prove his case against Parnell and colleagues, is now in this city. He slipped away from London the night before he was wanted. He alleges the agents of the Times continued to urge him to make disclosures against Parnell. Finally he set systematically to "work" them, and after getting all the money of them he could, he skipped to France, then to this country.

PURCHASED PERJURY.

Sir Charles Russell Again Scores

Parnell's Accusers.

London, April II.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] In his argument today, before the Parnell Commission, Sir Charles

Russell dwelt on the large sums spent by l'arnell's enemies, and said:
"Where did the money come from that was used to foment that plot? Houston did not enter upon an enterprise involving the expenditure of thousands of pounds as a the expenditure of thousands of pounds as a private individual. It was an association representing the landed interests of Ireland that supplied the funds and that had found a ready tool in Houston, who had pursued a course such as would have been followed by a man who was lending himself to deliberate forgeries. Houston had destroyed all the documents that might incriminate him and all letters which it would be dangerous to produce, and had resorted to every device in order to render it impossible to trace the course of his relations with Pigott"

Sir Charles Russell detailed the history of the forged letters, and promised to procure evidence that would afford the fullest vindication for Parnell and his associates, and show conclusively that they were free from the remotest connection with crime.

OFFICERS WHO PASS THE MED ICAL EXAMINATION.

Likewise Those Who Are Appointed on the Regular Force to Fill Vacancies—A Number of Old Men Reinstated -Ten Specials.

The meeting of the Police Commis sioners, at which the announcement of the permanent officers was to be made, had been called for 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but at that hour only Mayor Hazard, with Clerk Rob-inson, were in the office, wrestling with a number of able citizens who had called either for their own benefit or that of their friends. Chief Burns dropped in a few minutes later, and then Mr. Knox came in, looking somewhat flushed, as if he bad run up the stairs to make up for lost time. There was a long interval of waiting, during which the absence of Messrs. Furrey and Bilderrain was the principal topic of conversation, as these gentlemen are generally the most prompt in their attendance on the board meetings, and are supposed to be the working and are supposed to be the working members.

Finally, at 2:30 o'clock, the gentlemen arrived, and with a pleasant little apology about having had fish for lunch, which had somewhat delayed them, they hastly retired to the "swearing room" to put the final touches on the lists which had been prepared in their previous caucuses. They were closeted but a few minutes, when they came out, and the proceedings opened with the reading of the minutes.

Chief Burns said that, as he had to go to court, he wished to present the name of Mrs. Gray for the position of police matron. The lady, he said, is the daughter of Ira Thompson, whom he had known for many years, and he could recommend her as in every way competent. The Chief further called attention to the provision of the charter, which permitted him to appoint one or more deputies, and said that he would probably wish to avail himself of this right. of this right.

The charter was produced, and some debate followed, which was brought to a focus by Mr. Knox moving that the Chief be allowed to appoint such the Chief be allowed to appoint such deputies as he may need.

There was considerable discussion as to how this should be done, and it was suggested by the Mayor that the proper way would be for the Chief to appoint his deputy, or deputies, and then present their names to the board, and, if they were proper men, they could confirm them. This was satisfactory to the Chief, and the matter was dropped.

The question of police matron was then brought up, and the applications of Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Duval and Mrs. Gray were laid before the board. A vote was taken, and Mrs. Gray was elected unanimously.

The application of John Wesley Boyd for a position on thee force was received and placed on file.

P. Ballade was granted a license for the place recently occupied by C. Clary, on North Main street, on condition that he pay the license if any were due.

dition that he pay the license if any were due.

On motion of Mr. Furrey, the Chief of Police was instructed to detail an officer to visit every saloon in the city and inspect the licenses, to see that all were paying, and to require every place to produce its license for the current month. This action grew out of the Fancher developments at the meeting Wednesday.

Mr. Furrey then addressed the board, saying that the principal business for which it had met was the permanent organization of the force, and he therefore wished to read a list of the permanent members of the force, who would only be removed for cause, a list of the new men appointed to fill vacancies, a list of the specials, and also a list of those who had failed to pass the medical examination, and had therefore been rejected.

Before this was done, the announcement was made that all the appointments were made at the pleasure of the board, that any officer could be reversed to the payore.

ments were made at the pleasure or the board, that any officer could be re-moved at any time, and that he would only receive pay for the actual time that he had served. It was also stated that if any of these on the permanent list had not been examined, they would be required to pass an examination at

Mr. Furrey then read the following list of permanent officers, which, he said, contained just 90 names: list of permanent officers, which, he said, contained just 90 names:

Mr. Furrey moved that the names as read be confirmed, which was seconded by Mr. Bilderrain, and the motion was carried, Messrs. Hazard, Furrey and Bilderrain voting in the affirmative, Mr. Knox asking to be excused, saying that it was the first time that he had seen the list, and he therefore did not feel competent to vote.

Mr. Furrey then read the following list of specials, to be used in case of emergency, saying that they would have to pass the medical examination and file their certificates with the board in 10 days:

W. B. Hinkle, H. K. Chase, L. P. Miller, D. F. Finucane, Elvin Harvey, J. H. Mulialy, J. B. Langston, J. A. Bean, David L. Craig, S. N. Sheets.

He Duped a San Francisco Girl and Drove Her to the Bad, and Then Made Love to an

About a week ago Gilbert McClurg, late editor of the defunct Social World, left for San Francisco. The Yesterday A. M. Beale, superintendent of the Atlantic and Pacific, on city, and now that he has left, the society gossips have set their tongues awagging in the most approved style, and the once popular dude is being raked up and down the back in a manrived in this city and contradicted the nt occurred on the Atlantic and Pacific, near Peach Springs, last Monday. The story went on to say that ner that would make the average man wish he had never been born.

cific, near Peach Springs, last Monday. The story went on to say that two passenger trains came together with a fearful crash, and the engineers saved their lives by jumping down a high embankment, while one poor laborer, who was stealing a ride, was mashed as flat as a pancake, and the passengers were terribly shaken up.

Mr. Beale says the whole thing is a canard, and that there has not been an accident on his division for six months. How the story got out is a mystery, but it was telegraphed all over the country.

It is almost a settled fact that the Southern Pacific people are about to make extensive improvements in Southern California. Senator Stanford will arrive here and meet Mr. Huntington in a few days, when they will plan the work that is to be carried out. Senator Stanford will not remain here any length of time, but Mr. Huntington will look over the ground thoroughly. The Southern Pacific people have at last come to the conclusion that this is a wonderful country, and will in time outstrip any section in the United States.

On the 16th inst. the Fruit-growers' Association will meet in National City. The Southern Pacific will give all persons who wish to attend from the northern part of the State tickets down at full rates, but on the return their tickets will cost them only one-third of the regular rate. The same rates will hold good on the Santa Fé.

When the Flower Festival opens, the Southern Pacific and the Fourty of the State of the State of the State of the Southern Pacific will say on the santa Fé. McClurg first put in an appearance in this city about a year ago, and as he carried a lively tongue in his mouth and a brass-mounted cheek, he had no trouble in working his way into 'siety circles. He gave out that he had held a very responsible position on the local staff of the San Francisco Examiner, but he did not like the work in San Francisco, and when Mr. Clinton, proprietor of the Social World, heard of his great ability he employed Mr. McClurg at a princely salary to edit the Social World. Mr. Clinton had just purchased the World for $17,500, and as he had a plenty of money at that time, Mr. McClurg lived like a real dude.

McClurg drew about his person a number of dudes who had no visible means of support, but as they possessed accomplishments and a few good clothes, he had no trouble in working the whole crowd into society, and wherever he went they followed a la Mary and her small sheep.

McClurg proved to be quite a lady's man, and in a short time he had several society belles on a string. How he managed to keep them on the anxious seat is hard to tell, but he did, and while playing this little game in public he was also working two very deep games that were not for the public eye.

It seems that when he came down here he brought a bright San Francisco girl of good family, who had fallen a victim to his winning ways. She came as his mistress, and the liaison was managed so slyly that for a long time not even his friends knew of her presence in the city. She was an innocent young thing, and allowed him to pull the wool over her eyes for several months. When times were hard with him it is said she pawned her jewelry and gave him the proceeds. The awakening came, however, as is always the case, and a fearful row followed. What McClurg said to her is not known, but the unfortunate creature made her way to one of the most notorious houses of ill-fame in the city. For a short time she and her destroyer had nothing to do with each other, but they fifsily came together, and she in a measure fell back into her old ways. The Social World had rates will hold good on the Santa Fé.

When the Flower Festival opens, the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fé will carry flowers for all persons who wish to make donations free of charge.

A San Francisco paper says: It is now thought that the Barings will take hold and help the Santa Fé road out of its difficulties. The presence in Boston of Thomas Baring of New York has materially fostered this feeling. The Barings and Kidder, Peabody & Co. are supposed to hold some $20,000,000 of Atchison bonds, and the idea is, that rather than see Gould in control and dictating the rate of intercontrol and dictating the rate of inter-est which they shall receive, they will, in connection with other heavy capi-talists, advance funds enough to carry the company through its present some-what depressed condition. Pays a Fine of $150 for Shooting at His Wife.
The wind-up of the H. C. Coffey case took place in Judge Cheney's court yesterday morning. It will be remem-bered that some months ago Coffey took a couple of shots at his wife as wages of sin with the worthless fellow who had worked her moral destruction.

With all of these irons in the fire, McClurg was playing another game. It seems that he met a young lady from Colorado Springs, who was visiting friends here, and the two became greatly attached to each other, or at least the young lady became enamored of McClurg, and as she is quite wealthy, McClurg made up his mind to marry her, and they became engaged. She left Los Angeles for the north a short time ago, and it was understood that she and McClurg were to be married in San Francisco if he could get away from this city in time to catch her before the time set for her to be at home. McClurg left about a week ago, but it is not known whether he caught his intended or not, so it is possible that they have not yet been married.

He had hardly taken the train, when the girl who followed him down here struck out for the north, fully determined to make it very lively for the young man in case he attempted to marry the Colorado Springs girl.

McClurg's friends are confident that he will come out all right, as he told them that he was to be married fight away and would spend some time in Paris before returning to Los Angeles.

The San Francisco girl's case is a she was sitting in the entrance to the Dime Museum on Main street, near First. It was a particularly aggravated case, and entirely unjustifiable. Coffey is a son of Detective Coffey of San Francisco, where he had lived with his wife. They separated after unpleasant scenes and quarrels, and Mrs. Coffey came to Los Angeles, where she became doorkeeper at the Dime Museum. Since that time she has been promoted, and is now the Fire Queen. Her husband followed her to this city, and the scene of his attempt on her life was immediately at the entrance. He had been drinking and jerked out a pistol. Putting it almost against his wife he fired. So unsteady was his hand that he missed his aim. He tried it again, but a bystander knocked up his arm and the bullet whistled harmlessly away.

Coffey was in court yesterday upon the charge of assault with intent to murder, to which he pleaded not guilty some time ago. He withdrew this plea and entered a plea of guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. The Court thereupon fined him $150, which he paid and was discharged.

The San Francisco girl's case is a very sad one, and it is hard to tell at this writing what her future will be.

NEW SUITS.

Several Creditors Demand Satisfaction.
In the Superior Court yesterday suit was begun by F. W. Haman vs. R. D. Gillis and Mary A. Wattell. The plaintiff alleges that he did the work on a building contracted for by Gillis and built for Mrs. Wattell, for which he has not been paid, and asks judgment for $198. William Wright instituted suit against Thomas Thomsen and J. C.

Judge Haskins, the long-suffering victim of Hood's hypnotizing methods, was not present, and Mr. Hardesty announced plaintively that he didn't know when he would come back. In view of the absence of the procecuting witness he saked a continuance. The defense objected, but the Court granted a continuance until April 13th at 2 o'clock. It is suspected that Judge Haskins has immolated himself upon the altar of citizenship to the extent of his inclinations. It is thought likely that he will return no more to assist in the incarceration of the gentlemanly trie who initiated him into the mysteries of bunco. In that event Deputy District Attorney Hardesty will be obliged to go it alone with the psychologist.

against Thomas Thomsen and J. C. Willmon to recover judgment for $2000 unpaid purchase money on land.

Suit on two promissory notes of $5137.50 each was begun by A. J. Copp and C. B. Copp vs. E. Dane et al. Judgment is asked for $6421.83, and a foreclosure of the mortgage given as security for the payment of the notes.

W. E. Bagley entered suit against the Florence Manufacturing Company. The complaint alleges that a judgment was rendered against the company in favor of the Scoville Manufacturing Company December 22, 1888, by the Circuit Court of Walworth county, Wis.; that the judgment was assigned to him, and is unpaid. He therefore asks for judgment for $1027.81 and costs.

All the slang horse phrases bunched together, in order to express the feel-ings of those present at the fourth day's races of the Southern California Racing Club yesterday, amount to the one word—great. A fair crowd was present, notwithstanding the threaten-

Another delay of almost three-quarters of an hour occurred before the horses got properly started, owing to the drivers not paying attention to the roles in following the sulky nearest the pole. The judges threatened to fine several, but did not do so. When the word go was given What Ho and Belle B. took the lead, with Pond Lily, Jenny B. and Oliver J. close behind. What Ho was the first to cross the half-mile pole in 1:16—"a good record," as the judges said. What Ho kept the lead right around and won the first heat in 2:324—Belle B. second, Oliver J. third and Pond Lily fourth.

The betting on the second heat was lively, being from $10 to $100 on What Ho, and Pond Lily in the field was sold for $12. Time was called, and after thirteen false starts the word "Go" was given, and all passed the wire in good speed. Till the first quarter was reached no one could tell who would lead, but out of the midst in a grand trot came Oliver J., Pond Lily and What Ho. Near the half-mile pole What Ho broke, and Pond Lily got ahead. Pond Lily won the heat in 2:294, What Ho second, Belle B. third, Oliver J. fourth.

The third heat was not as surprising to the spectators. The drivers were getting sour and tired. Oliver J. was selling fairly well at the pools, and false starts were numerous. The starter rang the bell, the flag was dropped on the instant, and the horses rushed pell-mell toward the quarter post. Belle B. and Pond Lily second, Jenny B. third, Oliver J. fourth, What Ho fifth and William A. sixth.

It being then almost 7 o'clock and too dark to see the horses, the balance of the race was postponed till tomorrow at 1 o'clock. The summary of yesterday's races is as follows:

First Roos.—Starters: Wild Idle, 107 pounds; Alabo, 97 pounds; House J. Louis P. 102 pounds; John Treat, 118 pounds; Rettie B., 113 pounds; Florella, 107 pounds; Atlents, 107 pounds; Jalon 97 pounds; Belle B. won third heat in 2:304. Pound Lily, Oliver J. Several months ago a Miss Reddy arrived in this city and took up her residence at the Makara House, on Main street between Third and Fourth. She is a tall brunette and is considered quite pretty. She soon became acquainted with a number of business men, among whom was Albert A. Eckstrom, the wall-paper man. Soon after she met Eckstrom it became evident to their mutual friends that quite an affection was growing up between the two, although Mr. Eckstrom is a married man and has always been conmarried man and has always been considered the pink of perfection among the married men in his neighborhood. Things went on this way for several months, when a Michigan Central Railroad man named Darling put in an appearance and became acquainted with Miss Reddy. He is considered one of the handsomest men in the business, and in a very short time the dashing brunette changed her affection from the paper man to the dashing Darling.

The paper man was kept in the dark during the new courtship, and when Darling and Miss Reddy came to the conclusion that they could not live spart it was decided to take a trip some place to get rid of Eckstrom. She did not care to let him down real hard, as the dear creatures generally do when they change their affections, so she got up a bogus dispatch purporting to come from her sister in Colorado, asking her to come home at once.

She then showed the dispatch to from her sister in Colorado, asking her to come home at once.

She then showed the dispatch to Eckstrom, and quite a lively scene took place between the two, for the wall-paper merchant declared that she should not go. At this stage of the proceedings Mrs. Eckstrom received a letter in which a full account of her lord and master's doings was given. Quicker than a flash the face of the moon was covered with blood, and things became exceedingly sultry in that once quiet household. Miss Reddy displayed the dispatch to her friends, and in a few days she disappeared.

friends, and in a few days she disappeared.

Eckstrom did not fancy giving up the girl, so he started out to find her, as he was confident that she was in hiding in the city. During his search he learned about the railroad man, and then gave up all hope of ever regaining the girl's affection. A few days ago Darling left town, and it is supposed that Miss Reddy accompanied him, although he, too, is a married man, and has a wife living back East. The disappearance of the pair did not put a stop to the scandal, for Mrs. Eckstrom left her frieky "hubby," and it is said that she has gone East. Eckstrom is doing all in his power to square things with his wife, so it is not known whether there will be a sensational divorce suit or not.

CUDDY AND SABINE.

APPEAL TAKEN TO THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Grounds Set Forth in Detail Why Both of the Petitioners Should Be Released from the Custody of Uncle Sam.

The Cuddy and Sabine contempt cases go to the United States Supreme Court. Yesterday petitions for writs of habeas corpus were presented in the United States District Court on the part of both T. J. Cuddy and Alejandro Sabine, which Judge Ross denied.

An appeal was then prayed for to the dro Sabine, which Judge Ross denied. An appeal was then prayed for to the United States, Supreme Court, which was allowed by the Court. Both petitions are identical in the grounds upon which the writs were asked.

The petition of Sabine sets forth that he is unjustly and unlawfully detained and imprisoned by D. R. Risley, United States Marshal for the Southern District of Califoraia, and P. M. Darcy, warden of the jail of Los Angeles county, by color of the authority of the United States contrary to the Constitution and laws of the United States, that it is done under and by virtue of a warrant of commitment based upon a pretended judgment of the District Court of the United States, by which he was adjudged guilty of contempt of court, in trying to bribe a witness in the Gonjon smuggling case, and sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment in the County Jail. Sabine claims that he is a citizen of the Republic of Mexico, and State of Lower California, and bases his petition upon the ground that the United States District Court had no jurisdiction or authority legally to try and sentence him in the manner and form stated, for the following reasons:

First—For the reason that the mat-and form stated, for the following reasons:

First—For the reason that the matters set out in the said judgment do not constitute any contempt of court provided for by section 725 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

Second—For the reason that the proceedings in the said court were insufficient to give the court jurisdiction to proceed to judgment in the matter.

Third—For the reason that the judgment is void, because it is not based upon any proceedings in due course of law.

For these reasons he requests that a writ of habeas corpus issue forthwith to produce him before the court to abide by what award it shall make in the matter.

to produce him before the court to abide by what award it shall make in the matter.

The petition of T. J. Cuddy is based upon the same grounds, setting forth that his imprisonment for improperly approaching Juror McGarvin in the W. More Young case was unlawful and not justified.

Judge Ross made a formal ruling in the matter, denying both petitions, without stating any reasons. After the appeal to the Supreme Court was allowed, the work of getting up the transcripts in both cases was begun. They were completed last night, and Judge Anderson will leave with them for Washington city this morning. Messrs. Anderson, Fitzgerald and Anderson are the attorneys for both Cuddy and Sabine, and will present the appeals before the Supreme Court. District Attorney Denis lives in the hope that he may be called to assist in the presentation of the Government's side of the case, but he has not yet been notified to go to Washington.

SUICIDE.

How Jacob Hommel Evaded a Breach of Promise Suit. A fatal tragedy occurred near the terminus of the Temple-street cable line yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock, Jacob Hommel, an old and well-known resident of this city, taking his own life in the most horrible ing his own life in the most horrible manner, Mr. Hommel was quite wealthy and lived on his ranch of 34 acres near the city limits, with Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe, who kept house for him. He has always been eccentric, but for the past two years has generally been considered insane, but harmless. Some time ago Mr. Hommel got into some trouble with a woman who had kept house for him, which resulted in the woman bringing suit against him for 350,000 for breach of promise, which suit is now pending in the

in the woman bringing suit against him for $50,000 for breach of promise, which suit is now pending in the courts. This has seemed to weigh on his mind a great deal, and has caused him a great deal of annoyance on account of his children, and he has of late been heard to say that he intended to end his whole thing.

Yesterday afternoon he appeared to be more depressed than usual, and retired to his room. Nothing was thought of this until a pistol shot was heard, and, on going inside, Mr. Hommel was found dead, he having shot himself, through the heart with a small 29-caliber pistol. From the appearance of the room and the surroundings it looks as though Mr. Hommel lirst took poison—a mixture of laudanum and strychnine, which he concocted in an iodine bottle—as a part of the contents were found, and also another bottle containing strychnine. The poison was beginning to act, and in a paroxyism of pain he probably picked up the revolver and fired the fatal shot.

Mr. Hommel's daughter-in-law, who lives in Detroit, was visiting him, and his sons also live at the place, but the latter were not at home, and the first that they knew of the tragedy was told to them on the street. They did not know that their father was dead, and came down town for a doctor, and speat some time in looking for a physical and before they found out the facts.

In the meantime, Coroner Meredith had been notified, and went out to the house and took charge of the body, which was removed to Orr & Sutch's undertaking establishment last night. The inquest will be held today.

Mr. Hommel was 65 years of age, and a widower, he having lost his wife some years ago. He has several children, one son living in Detroit, another in San Francisco, and a son and daughter residing in this city, the latter being the wife of Police Officer Bowler. He was quite wealthy, his estate being valued at $50,000 to $100,000. Besides the 34-acre ranch where he lived, he owned a number of lots in the city, besides property in Detroit.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY is being rapidly populated. There is such a mad rush in that direction that it has been found necessary to erect temporary houses for immigrants.

THE Herald cannot understand why First street should be paved, while Second street is neglected. But, then, First street is not paved by a long Wait until the work on that street is finished. It will not take more than two years, at the present rate of progress.

Public sentiment in favor of prohibition does not appear, by any means, to be universal in the staid old State of Massachusetts. Of 261 replies received from representative men in that State, to a query regarding their attitude as regards prohibition, 188 are against the constitutional amendment, and only 73 for it.

THE report of the Professor in charge of the College of Agriculture of the University of California—E. W. The experiment stations established by the university will soon be yielding some interesting

THE heathen Chinee has at least one thing to boast of, and that is, that the Chinese language is spoken by about 300,000,000 more of the human race than that of any other people. THE new officers of this Adminisnot talk loudly of "reform," but still they are quietly introducing some excellent reforms in the various departments of public service. Among the commendable changes proposed is that of Secretary Proctor's, which proposes to do away with Sunday dress parades in the regular army. These parades are altogether unnecessary upon the Sabbath, and their discontinuance is a step in the right direction, which will meet with the approval of the public generally.

Some of the Southern Republicans are disposed to be bitter in their com-plaints of the President on the ground that he has not given important offices to southern men, and that he has not shown any disposition to remove the Democratic officials in the Southern States. The fact about the southern offices and the southern Republicans seems to be that the President does not intend to have any reproaches brought upon his Administration by injurious appointments in the South and that he intends to go slow. The President has frankly told some of the visiting delegations that he does not expect at present to make many ap pointments in the South, and that the applicants will not promote their chances by remaining about the hotels

KANSAS CITY has gone to work in good earnest to secure the rigid enforcement of her prohibitory law, be lieving that a law is worth nothing enforcement. The liquor dealers having grown insolent and de fiant, the authorities took them in hand, and sent a score or more of them to prison for long*terms, besides im posing on them a fine of $100 for every glass of intoxicants they had been conricted of vending. At the same time the gambling dens were closed and dives were compelled to put up their shutters, greatly to the public satisfaction. A little of this vigorous healing with the gambling dens and he houses of infamy in this city would dive immense satisfaction to the hon-st and law-abiding citizens of Los A DISGRACEFUL LAW.

At the recent session of the Maine egislature the following outrageous law was passed:

law was passed:

"Whoever goes about from town to town, or from place to place, in any town, asking for food or shelter, or begging or subsisting upon charity, shall be deemed a tramp, and be imprisoned in the County Jail for not less than 60 days, at hard labor, for 10 hours each day. Sundays excepted. And should any person so sentenced refuse to labor in accordance with the provision of this section, he shall be provided with no food, except bread and water, until he shall consent to labor in conformity with the requirements of this section."

Under this precious statute these

Under this precious statute three honest woodchoppers were sent to jail the other day, at Biddeford, for sixty lays. Their offense was that they had applied at the station-house in that city for a night's lodging. Having ex hausted their means, they started to walk out in search of work, when having asked for shelter, they were arrested and imprisoned under an act of which they had never heard.

Now, we submit that things have come to a pretty pass if in any portion of this great and formerly hospitable country, an honest man who has ex-hausted his means in searching for work can be imprisoned like a felor for two months, and the brand of in famy fastened upon him for life, for merely having asked for a night' shelter. The passage of such an act by an American State Legislature is calculated to make every hones American blush with shame. The pro fessional tramps are a nuisance and danger, and no decent citizen would complain of a law to restrain and pun ish them, but a law which makes no distinction between the victims of temporary misfortune and lifelone beggars and criminals is an outrage which makes poverty a crime and put a premium upon theft.

THE BUNCO CASE

The failure to hold the bunco me on the charge of felony was a lament able failure of justice. If ever there was a plain case made out against men charged with crime, it certainly seemed, to unprejudiced observers, that this was one. We are not pre-pared to distribute the blame for this miscarriage of justice between the court and the prosecuting officers, or to say just where most of that blame ngs, but, whoever are the culpable parties, the result to this city remains the same. It will most assuredly give Los Angeles a black eye in the E where the prosecuting witness is very well known. He will go back home and tell how, even when a case is a plain as daylight, it is impossible to hold thieves and swindlers in this city. The difficulty of punishing wrongloers who have command of means is indeed a grave and growing one, not only in Los Angeles, but throughout the country. There is a class of lawyers who make a specialty of clearing criminals-of course for a consideration. These men make a study of the loopholes in the laws, by which the objects of the framers of those laws may be defeated. In jury trials, there is sure to be a hung jury. In other cases different tactics are adopted, but al ways with the same result—the discharge of men who should be behind

When it gets to the pass that a man who has money can scarcely be punished in the courts, the State is in grave danger, and anarchy is more than a possibility.

HOW CONSULS WILL BE AP-POINTED.

The following, from the Washington correspondence of the Boston Journal, will be interesting to the vast army of seekers after consulates, who have been burning the midnight oil, while studying maps and cyclopedias, of their future usefulness in Uncle Sam's service:

Sam's service:

The President has informed office-seekers that he now intends to rely on his Cabinet to examine the papers of candidates. The presence of Mr. Whatton is awaited with much interest by a great many office-seekers. All the consular service is under the direct charge of the new Assistant Secretary of State Whatton, and until he arrives nothing whatever will be done about it. When he is ready he will go all through the list of consuls, look up their records, see by whom they were appointed, how long and how well they have served, and decide who shall be retained and what vacancy shall be made. As to the political faith of the incumbents and the effect it will have on their standing, only this is said, that where an ex-Contederate soldier, a Democrat, is found occupying a place from which an ex-Union soldier has been dismissed to make room for him, the ex-Confederate Democrat will have to make room for a Republican. It will interest some people to know that ex-Senator Biddieberger of Virginia is an applicant for the consulate at Dublin. The President has suggested that he file his papers with Secretary Blaine.

HALSTEAD AND FORAKER

The following is from an interview with Dr. J. C. Culbertson, in the Cin-

with Dr. J. C. Culbertson, in the Cincinati Times-Star:

"Who do you consider the most available Republican aspirants to Senatorial honors?"

"Halstead and Foraker."

"Would Foraker bother Halstead mech?"

"Yes, Foraker's strength is outside of Hamilton county, for, although he ran behind in this county in 1887, he showed great gains and strength outside."

"Halstead's main strength lies in this county, therefore, but just what his strength here is can not be computed accurately, as he has never had an opportunity of testing the sentiment of the people toward him. In my opinion he is a very strong man, but the only way for him to reach the Senate is for Foraker to be pulled out of the way, which I believe the Administration will do by appointing him circuit judge, a life position, and, in my opinion, far preferable to a seat in the Senate."

THE preparations for the centennial inauguration of George Washington are developing a large amount of rancor and petty spite. There has already been a disagreement between the Legislature and the local authorities over the route which the pro-cession is to take. The local authoricession is to take. The local authorities threafened to change the route so that the reviewing stand which the Legislature proposed to erect would be left out in the cold. The Legislature countered by a declaration that it would order the militia to march over a route that would take in its reviewing stand and leave the local celebation to itself. Then there has been a dispute over the brand of champagne that is to be used at the banquet.

These squabbles are very unseemly, in view of the great national event which

WHILE our real-estate boom has be-come almost a matter of history with us, it seems that it is still being worked upon credulous people in the East. It is said that persons are be-ing extensively swindled there by parties pretending to sell and give away choice lands in different parts of California. One of the latest and most transparent schemes is that of the "California and Southern Land Trust Company," whose principal place of business is announced as Cincinnati, O. This company is floeding the East with circulars headed, "Free money and cheap property in the great Sacramento Valley, California; $100, 000 given absolutely free to purchas ers." This State has already suffered more than enough from such swind-

THE opening of the Oklahoma Territory to settlement this month prom ises to develop a first-class row among the intending settlers. There are said to be a dozen claimants for every de sirable quarter section, and it will impossible to decide who make the first settlement. The desire evinced to obtain a piece of Government land is a good sign, but it cannot be denied that much of the rush is due to a speculative fever on the part of the land-seekers, much as they would rush to a gold strike. Very many people in the United States are only happy when on the move. They ought to build their houses on wheels, then they could follow each new excitement without having to pull up stakes.

THE fact that the Senate has adourned has not brought the President that immunity from office-seekers which was hoped and expected. They seek the White House in troops again, just as they did before. The President is represented as being thoroughly tired out by the ceaseless procession of applicants. Something will have to be done soon to regulate this appointment business, which is becoming more and more troublesome from one Administration to another as the growth of the country progresses. It is getting so now that the business of Government is clogged by the rush of importunate office-seekers.

THE following, from the Washingon correspondence of a Boston paper, is the latest new report which we have seen regarding the office of Public

Printer:

The President may have a surprise in store in the matter of the appointment of Public Printer. The name of Capt. Brian, for many years the foreman of the Government Printing Office, has been presented for his consideration, and it is said that so influential an advocate as Senator Edmunds has been secured without solicitation. There can be no question that no man in the long list of candidates is so well fitted for this position as Capt. Brian, He has been connected with the office for thirty fiventy-two.—ED. CONGRESSMAN FLOWER of New York is on his way west. He is deeply interested in the irrigation problem and desirous of securing a system by which lands in Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Texas, where he has possessions, can be provided with water.

NOTWITHSTANDING the poor outlook for railroads, there have already been projected, since the first of January cording to the Railway Age, 666 new lines, with an aggregate contemplated mileage of 53,436, of which 14,818 is already under construction.

THE CIRCUS.—The excellence of the car service circus-ward yesterday made it an easy thing to reach Sells Broa. big tent by 2 o'clock, see the elephant and the baby lion and be seated on a precarious but highly carpeted seat at the time of opening. From that moment the eye was kept attentive and the attention fixed to take in all that was offered at once in the three rings with their busy circle of activity. The performance as a whole was worth the regular admission fee—that is, if one was not caught by a specious, imitation ticket-selling booth and over-charged, as were many. The fun in a circus to an adult depends so largely upon the size and shape of his bump of humor and his veneration that, it would be tidle to pass any final verdict upon special parts. The jovial elephant with the ruffled pantalettes and the social instincts was a mirth provoker; the 30-horses driven by Signor Braw a striking and lovely sight, and the racing exciting enough for those who do not wager, or own a stopwatch. It was not therefore, regarded necessar; to buy Wellington coal at $10 per ton when we had coal of our own, which had been bought and paid for. The attorneys for the plaintiff offered in evidence a book containing press copies of letters sent by witness to John E. Searies in relation to the business aff. irs of both corporations, which after much discussion as to their admissibility were read. They tended to show that the officers of the local company rendered monthly statements of its affairs to the trust corporation. Last Thursday night the row assumed threatening proportions, and, as "Wash" is accredited with being a "bad man from Texas," with a prison record, the church was suddenly seized with discretion, and invoked the majesty of the law to get rid of the obnoxious creditor. The charge against him was disturbing the peace, and he was examined before Justice Stanton yesterday afternoon. There were any number of witnesses and "Wash" had mighty little show among so many fervid opposers. It was shown that the money borrowed from White was refunded the night of the trouble, and would have been paid before if he would have given up the note. The Court bound him over to keep the peace for six months under a bond of $100. Anderson, and that when he wanted it

Murderer.
The arguments of counsel in the Weyerman murder case, in which Arthur Weverman was accused of killing his brother, Bernard Weyerman, last August, occupied all the morning in Judge McKinley's court yesterday.

Judge McKinley's court yesterday.

The case went to the jury at 12 o'clock, and they were out until 3:30 o'clock, when they returned a verdict of not guilty.

Arthur Weyerman, the accused, was not visibly nervous over the probable result as he sat in the courtroom. He was very quiet and self-possessed. As soon as the verdict was announced he stood by the gate through which the jury left the box and shook each one of them by the hand. After a long siege of eight months he left the courtroom a free man, and cleared, as far as the jury could do it, of the dreadful crime which had been imputed to him. It was not seriously believed at any stage of the trial that he would be found guilty.

"WORLD" MAN RETURNS FROM SANTA CLARA,

Relating His Experiences-Perils by Land-Voyaging by Mule, Wagon and Foot-Grand Scenery and

Mr. D. J. Kenny, a correspondent of the New York World, is at present stopping at the Raymond, where he was yesterday interviewed by a repre-sentative of The Times. He is rest-ing from a trip to the Santa Clars mines, of Lower California. The Times's commissioner extracted the following information from Mr. Kenny:

The road leading from Ensenada to the mines is one of the most difficult on the American continent, and yet Mr. Kenny, though in delicate health, made this trip a short time since. One beautiful morning, near the close of last month, this gentleman, in company with Gov. Luis E. Torres of Lower California and Carlos Fernando de Landero, Government Mining Inspector for Mexico, left Ensenada for the Santa Clara gold mining district. They were well provided with provisions, blankets, and every accessory to make the trip as pleasant as it is possible to make a trip over the worst roads in the world. These honorable gentlemen were bumped and thumped around in a spring wagon drawn by six horses until every joint in them was dislocated, and until they were pounded almost to death. Mr. Kenny reports that he never saw so rough a road, and that he would not again go over it for a million dollars. For miles and miles they trailed on razorbacks thousands of feet above the sea, while precipices to the right and left looked down into yawning chasms thousands of feet below. At one point one of the lead horses made a misstep, and in an instant was hanging by the harness. They were compelled to cut him loose, and he fell 300 feet. The rattlesnakes and wild beasts deep down in the cañon were disturbed by the sudden falling of the horse; but in an hour all was quiet, and the weary travelers went on their way minus a good and faithful horse.

Mr. Kenny says he would not repeat the trip for millions. "No amount of money," said he, "could induce me to go over that road again. It is the worst road ever traveled by man or beast; and it is about all a man's life is worth to go over it. Broken wagons, dead horses and famished men were found strewn along the way for many miles." Screw taps, bolts and pieces of all kinds were taken from disabled wehicles, and used in repairing the wagon occupied by the distinguished party, for they broke down many times. Provisions found in disabled wagons were taken in charge, and dealt out to straggling

Santa Clara district. He thinks it will pay to put up quartz mills, and that a permanent camp will be the result. The International Company is filing on and purchasing claims constantly, and are now working not less than 60 men. There are about 2000 men in camp, and the story that all arms are taken from miners coming into camp is incorrect. The ledges are from six to eight feet in width, and the rocks spread out for miles and miles. There is no grass for 50 miles, nothing but rocks and rocky hills.

The roads are next to impassable at present, but Gov. Torres promises

The roads are next to impassable at present, but Gov. Torres promises to repair them at an early day. This some one will be compelled to do before quartz mills can be erected in the Santa Clara district.

The placers are a complete fake; quartz is the only hope of the camp.

It is frequently as warm as 90 degrees during the day, while at night it freezes, six double blankets not being enough to keep a man warm.

Mr. Kenny's illustrated letter of Los Angeles is out in Frank Leslie's Newspaper.

He is, in fact, a book agent, and was in Los Angeles for several days before he went to Pasadena. The spree in which he indulged at Pasadena was only a continuation of one he began at Los Angeles. He carried it so far in this city that he was taken to the Sisters' Hospital, where he had delirium tremens. Contraband Opium Deputy United States Marshal Flint has returned from San Francisco, and brought with him the 85 boxes of opium found at San Luis Obispo a few weeks ago. They were taken to San Francisco by the Marshal who seized them, notwithstanding the fact that proceedings of condemnation were brought in the United States Court in this district.
